

Internships 2024

- Are you a college student who is interested in making a difference in the lives of others?
- Do you seek to put theories into practice as you passionately serve others in the community?
- Are you looking for opportunities that will allow you to boost your resume and compete on a national and or worldwide level?
- Can you lead collaborative projects in the U.S. and other countries?
- Are you willing to apply your skills for at least 5-10 hours per week?

If you can answer “Yes” to all questions above and you are innovative, energetic, and committed to excellence please apply today for an internship opportunity today. The EXPOSE 501c3 nonprofit organization based in Los Angeles, California is seeking college students who are majoring in:

Internships that will begin in April 2024

- African & American Studies
- American Sign Language
- Arts and Theatre
- Business Administration
- Communications
- Marketing
- Pre-Law & Pre-Medicine
- Public Health
- Urban Planning & Urban Studies

Internships that will begin in July 2024

- Creative Writing & Journalism
- Education
- Fashion
- Film
- Photography
- Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics

Get excited to boost your skills, lead with confidence, and have fun leading engaging projects. Apply and interview for a 5-week internship that will enhance your networks to compete globally. If you are interested in applying or have questions, please contact Lyn@XXXXXX.